The Southern California Association of Governments invites you to explore the opportunities and benefits of establishing a Southwest Compact.

Join elected, transportation, economic and human development officials, business leaders and other key stakeholders from both sides of this shared 2000 mile border for a groundbreaking discussion. Help formulate the vision, principles, and plan to cooperatively propel this region towards its destined position as one of the top ten "trading nations" in the world.

Program and registration materials will be mailed at a later date.
