

OPTIONS FOR GETTING AROUND

ACTIVE TRANSPORTATION

Source: Laecovillage.wordpress.com

Walking, biking, or rolling

BUS

Source: fleetsandfuels.com

Local bus service that travels on a planned route with other vehicles

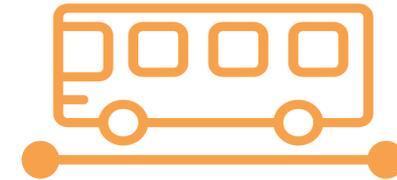

BUS RAPID TRANSIT

Source: Omnitrans.org

Rapid bus service typically has its own dedicated lane, limited stops, and allows payment before you board

EXPRESS BUS

Source: Omnitrans.org

Express bus service connects major origins and destinations with limited stops, often running on freeways

LIGHT RAIL

Source: Metro Gold Line Foothill Extension Construction Authority

Trains used for local service with frequent stops

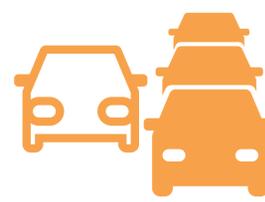

COMMUTER RAIL

Source: Scpr.org

Trains used for longer distances with limited stops

HIGH OCCUPANCY TOLL (HOT) LANES

Source: thetransitcoalition.us

High Occupancy Toll (HOT) Lane available to high-occupancy vehicles without charge; other vehicles are required to pay a toll

TAXI OR TRANSPORTATION NETWORK COMPANIES

Source: lastreetsblog.org

Shared ride services, such as Uber and Lyft